Moodboard green

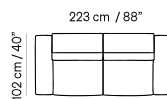

The Natuzzi Style Center carefully selects materials and coverings, putting them in dialogue with each other. In this case, the Denver leather in the Optical White color was paired with the Brezza velvet in the Teal color. The combination of these coverings together with the ceramic, will give rise to the moodboard that will create the final total look of the project. Each model in the collection is presented with multiple moodboards to adapt to homes all over the world.

Moodboard green

Together with the moodboard of coverings and materials, the Style Centre harmonizes the sofa with furniture and accessories to complete the interior design project.
